

This rule will effectively take away all constitutional rights of airman. The rule will allow indiscriminate revocation of airman certificates with out due process or evidence. This law will prove to be unconstitutional and cause unjustified hardship on many pilots. The very basis of our country is the presumption of innocence, this rule takes that right away. The benefits of this rule will not enhance safety or take away a terrorist threat. Terrorist do not abide by laws, so this rule will only be effective in keeping innocent people from exercising there rights.
